The Mr. Vhenon Railway Again.—
On Saturday last Mr. James A. Barnes, of this place received a dispatch from Philadelphia sent by Judge Hurd, of Mt. Vernon, in the words following:
"Can you pledge Delaware county for 75,000 to complete the railway from Mt. Vernon to Delaware in the interests of the Pennsylvania Central road connecting with the Pittaburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago road at Millersburgh?" Mr. Barnes replied by telegraph saying that while he had no authority to pledge seventy-five thousand dellars he had no doubt it could be raised.

Capital, if properly conducted by skillful and practical workman.
Second, The business of working farms by machinery is yet in its infances of the interests of the west and south-west are to be supplied and Ohio is and is to be, the great workshop for their supply. Why should not Delaware keep page with other amalier and less favorably situated towns—when instead of buying of we may sell to them.

Third, Such an establishment, if well conducted, would give employment to a large number of our clizzens and thority to pledge seventy-five thousand dellars he had no doubt it could be raised.
